Sensei Antonio Oliva is one of the pioneers of European Martial Arts and a world leader in the study and teaching of Tactics. Sensei Oliva is a founding member of the Centre for Scientific Research on Martial Arts and Combat Sports. He is the co-author of Formalization of Sports Karate, 1982; Martial Arts Practical Encyclopaedia, 1985; and Supreme Combat, 2002.

Sensei Oliva's technical and coaching talents took the Spanish National Team from complete anonymity to astonish the Karate world by winning the team event and also 10 individual medals at the World Championships in 1980.

Today, his Sports Karate Coaching System is respected and followed the world over. In the last Karate World Championships held in Tampere, Finland, 15 of the 29 countries that won medals have trained using his technical and tactical approach.
